Who: All FCF Members

What: FCF TREK

When: October 20th- 21th 2018.

Where: Lead Mine Conservation Area near Tunas, Missouri at Gasconaide River

Access.

How: Get yer Young Bucks, get your Ole Timers and then get your Haversack and get food and shelter and come TREK (backpacking 1/2 mile in) and fellership with usin's.

Registration is only $10.00 per person.

(Don't forget each outpost will most likely charge something for their own expenses for this event as well) This covers the registration fee only.

This year we have a host of skillful activities
for you and your boys to enjoy.

Featuring:

TREKING

Roughing it too far to haul stuff.

Doing it the way they used to do it.

As period correct as possible.

Modern boots that look like mocc's are ok
to meet the Farb in all of us.

Hope to see you and your FCF Members
there.

The boys will be challenged by hands on skill testing. Plus they will be able to knock off a few merit requirements.

Joshua has hosted a couple events to get us ready for this at Winter Outing and once at his house. So if your curious just what you need call our

South West Division VP he is Hosting the event!

Jakes Creek Parking lot just past the turn off that takes you to Herricks Ford in Lead Mine Conservation Area is where we will meet. The Trek will take us from there about 1/2 mile along established trails.

We will meet at the trailhead around 10 am and leave from there. Please let us know if your attending. Will return around noon on Sunday after a night in the woods roughing it.
